THE GREAT WAR

YEARS OF ANZAC

THE SPIRIT
LIVES
2014 - 2018

Introduction

This year, 2015, marks the centenary of the start of the Gallipoli campaign and Australia's involvement as a nation in the greatest and most terrible conflict ever seen to that time. Australians joined their Armed Forces in large numbers. Their motives were as varied as their upbringings, from a need to save the Empire, of which Australia was an integral part, to the desire to have a great adventure.

Braidwood and district were no exception. Over the four years from 1914 to 1918, from a population of about 5000, 465 men and women from what is now the 2622 postcode area – including Braidwood, Majors Creek, Araluen, Mongarlowe, Nerriga, Ballalaba and Jembaicumbene joined the Navy or Army. Of these 377 returned to Australia. Sadly, 88 lost their lives.

A varying amount of their history is recorded in the Australian War Memorial. Some of their names, but not all, are recorded on local memorials. More is recorded in limited local histories and newspapers, not readily available to the general public; and the people who lived with and knew these distant relatives are also passing on.

The Braidwood RSL Sub Branch has collected all the information available from the Australian War Memorial and local sources, including the Braidwood Museum. Families, still resident in the district, have added their family knowledge and their precious memorabilia.

This booklet is the available story of Thomas Philip Whitelaw, one of the 88 Braidwood volunteers who did not return from World War I. It contains his details as recorded in the World War I Roll of Honour, his Enlistment Papers, Field Service records, any Casualty notification, correspondence relating to his death, details of decorations won, any available photos, and, in some instances, family correspondence or recollections.

Thomas Philip Whitelaw died for his country, for you and for me. Please pause a moment to remember him.

Lest We Forget.

WORLD WAR I

World War I lasted four years, from 4 August 1914 until 11 November 1918. It began after the assassination of the heir to the Austrian throne. The axis powers were Germany and Austria. Russia and France were the initial allies. When Germany invaded Belgium, Britain entered the war on the side of Russia and France.

The war was in Europe, the Western Front was in France and Belgium. The Eastern Front was Russia and Austria-Hungary. Africa was another front because of colonial possessions on that continent, and after Turkey entered the war on 1 November 1914, the Middle East became another theatre of war.

Australians generally thought of themselves as an integral part of the British Empire and the Australian Army and Navy were part of the Imperial Forces. In 1914, Australia's Prime Minister, Andrew Fisher, immediately promised Australian support for Britain 'to the last man and the last shilling.' The Australian population was less than five million. 324,000 Australians served overseas. 61,720 lost their lives. 155,000 were wounded. 4,044 became prisoners of war (397 died while captive).

The first Australian troops were sent to Egypt in 1915. The ANZACS – Australian and New Zealand Army Corps – were engaged in battle on the Gallipoli Peninsula against the Turks to control the Dardanelles' and open the way to Eastern Europe with their fateful landing on 25 April 1915.

The ANZACS were evacuated on 19-20 December 1915. The Gallipoli campaign resulted in the deaths of 7,600 Australians and the wounding of 19,000. Despite the defeat, the legend attached to the heroism, comradeship and valour of the soldiers remain a source of Australian pride and national identity.

56th Australian Infantry Battalion

The 56th Battalion was raised in Egypt on 14 February 1916 as part of the "doubling" of the AIF. Half of its recruits were Gallipoli veterans from the 4th Battalion, and the other half, fresh reinforcements from Australia. Reflecting the composition of the 4th, the 56th was predominantly composed of men from New South Wales. The battalion became part of the 14th Brigade of the 5th Australian Division.

Arriving in France on 30 June 1916, the battalion entered the frontline trenches for the first time on 12 July and fought its first major battle at Fromelles a week later. The battle was a disaster, resulting in heavy casualties across the division. Despite these losses the 5th Division continued to man the front in the Fromelles sector for a further two months.

After a freezing winter manning trenches in the Somme Valley, in early 1917 the 56th Battalion participated in the advance that followed the German retreat to the Hindenburg Line. It was spared the assault but did, however, defend gains made during the second battle of Bullecourt. Later in the year, the AIF's focus of operations switched to the Ypres sector in Belgium. The 56th's major battle here was at Polygon Wood on 26 September.

With the collapse of Russia in October 1917, a major German offensive on the Western Front was expected in early 1918. This came in late March and the 5th Division moved to defend the sector around Corbie. The 14th Brigade, took up positions to the north of Villers-Bretonneux and held these even when the village fell, threatening their flanks.

Once the German offensive had been defeated, the Allies launched their own offensive in August 1918. The 14th Brigade did not play a major role in these operations until late in the month, but its actions were critical to the capture of Peronne, which fell on 2 September. The 56th fought its last major battle of the war, St Quentin Canal, between 29 September and 2 October 1918. It was resting out of the line when the Armistice was declared on 11 November. Soon after, members of the battalion began to be returned to Australia for discharge. It ceased to exist as a separate entity on 10 April 1919, when the remnants of all of the 14th Brigade's battalions were merged into a single unit.

HMAT Port Sydney

14th October 1919: Thomas Philip Whitelaw disembarked from the HMAT Port Sydney whilst enroute home to Australia. He evacuated sick with pneumonia to No. 1 General Hospital, Wynberg, Cape Town. He later died on 17th December 1919 of septic pneumonia and empyema.

March 16-16

I hereby grant permission for my son, Thomas to enlist

Signed,

Thomas Whitelaw,

Kathleen Whitelaw.

Ref. R8/9107/15.

29/12/19.

Dear Madam,

I regret to have to inform you of the death of your son - 2019 Private Thomas Phillip WHITELAW, 56th Battalion, Australian Imperial Force, which took place at No.1 South African General Hospital, Wynberg, C.P., S.Africa, at 6.30am. on 17th December, 1919, cause of death being Emyema following pneumonia.

Deceased was disembarked to No.1 General Hospital at this port on 14th October ex H.M.T. "PORT SYDNEY" when bound for Australia from the United Kingdom. He was then Dangerously Ill, suffering from pneumonia. On 7th November he had somewhat improved, and was taken off the "Dangerously Ill List" and put on the "Seriously Ill List". His improvement was so marked that on 13th November the Doctor attending him considered him as no longer Seriously Ill, and his name was removed from the seriously Ill List. Unfortunately complications set in and on 29th November he was again placed on Seriously Ill List, his condition rapidly becoming worse, and on 2nd December he was again placed on the Dangerously Ill List.

Everything possible was done by the Staffs of the Hospital to save the life of your son - the nursing sisters being untiring in their efforts to afford him relief, but he gradually sank and passed peacefully away at 6.30am on the morning of 17th December, 1919.

The patient was visited in Hospital from time to time by the Australian Medical Officer attached to these Headquarters, the Australian Red Cross Commissioner, S.Africa, and by various members of the Local Anzac Committee. Three days before his death the Officer Commanding A.I.F. 1 in South Africa, Captain Thirkell, visited him at the Hospital, but was unable to do anything more than the sisters were doing for him.

He was buried with full military honours on the afternoon of 18th December at the Wynberg Municipal Cemetery, Plumstead, C.P. in Separate Grave No.8, Allotment U.L. Military Section, a quiet and appropriate final resting place for an Australian soldier, being situated in one of the most beautiful parts of the Cape, and planted with Oums and Wattle.

Representatives of regiments in camp in the Cape Peninsula were present at the funeral. The Firing Party was drawn from the ranks of the Returned Soldiers Battalion No.2 (South Africa) and the Pall Bearers consisted of six members of the staff of this depot.

The mourners who followed the Bier to the graveside consisted of- Captain E.V. Bradfield, A.A.M.C., A.I.F., Captain C.F. O'Halloran Wright, Australian Y.M.C.A., 2/Lieut. White, Austn. Y.M.C.A., two M.C.O's from this Depot and a party of over 50 members of the Returned Soldiers' Battalion No.2 from Wynberg Camp.

The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Father J.J. O'Reilly, R.C. of Wynberg C.P., Chaplain to Wynberg Military Hospital, & the funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs J.A. Human & Son, also of Wynberg.

A temporary wooden cross suitably lettered will be erected over the grave by this office, and it is understood that in the course of time a permanent headstone of Australian stone will be erected by the Commonwealth Government.

The Castle,
Cape Town.

29/12/19.

The grave will be visited and tended from time to time by the ladies of the local "Anzac Committee". If possible a photograph of the grave will be taken later and a copy despatched to you.

Your son left certain personal effects, including three wallets containing letters, photos, etc. These will be forwarded to the Secretary for Defence, Melbourne, at the first available opportunity, who will communicate with you direct regarding the disposal thereof.

I am not in possession of your son's Will.

Faithfully yours,

A. Shinkell

Captain.

Everything possible was done by the staff of the Hospital to save the life of your son - the nursing sisters being untiring in their efforts to afford him relief, but he gradually sank and passed peacefully away at 6.30 am on the morning of 17th December, 1919.

The patient was visited at hospital from time to time by Mrs. C. Whitelaw, the Australian Hon. Consul, 3. Africa Exchange Hotel, Goulburn, N.S.W. are his death the doctor attending him at the hospital, Captain Shinkell, visited him at the hospital, but was unable to do anything more than the sisters were able to do for him.

He was buried with full military honours on the afternoon of 18th December at the Wynberg War Cemetery, Cape Town, in a separate grave, and in a quiet and appropriate resting place. He was a brave and gallant soldier, being elected as one of the most popular members of the Depot, and being well liked by all the members of the Battalion. The visiting party was composed of the Hon. Consul, the Hon. Consul's wife, the Hon. Consul's daughter, and the Hon. Consul's secretary, and was accompanied by six members of the Depot.

The Hon. Consul and his wife, the Hon. Consul's daughter, and the Hon. Consul's secretary, were accompanied by six members of the Depot. The Hon. Consul and his wife, the Hon. Consul's daughter, and the Hon. Consul's secretary, were accompanied by six members of the Depot.

Acknowledgements

Everybody responded enthusiastically to the idea of capturing the information about Braidwood's 88 World War I veterans who lost their lives. The Braidwood RSL Sub Branch is most grateful for the support they received in carrying out this task and would like to acknowledge those of whom we are aware: Karen, Chris and Renee Nelson, Roslyn Maddrell, Karen Shea, Jill Clarke, Rod McClure, Ben and Meaghan Frohling, Diane McGrath, Us On Mondays Quilting Group, Len Mutton & Co and local shopkeepers for their World War I window displays.

Thank you to the students and teachers of Braidwood Central School and St. Bedes School who have embraced these soldiers and have honoured their memories on Anzac Day 2015.

The Braidwood RSL Sub Branch raised a good proportion of the funds for the cost of producing these booklets. The efforts of the members of the sub branch involved are very much appreciated. This money was augmented by welcome funding from the Federal Government through the ANZAC Centenary Local Grants Program and the Braidwood Community Bank.

To all those who helped in any way, many thanks. Your efforts have ensured we remember these Braidwood and District Veterans well.

Back Cover: Peace Day, 11th November 1918, Wallace Street, Braidwood.

"Wild day in Braidwood: When Braidwood woke up on Tuesday morning to find the 'glad tidings of great joy' awaiting it that Germany had signed the armistice and the frightful carnage of the past four years or so had come to an end it simply went mad with delight. No other words could adequately describe the excitement that followed." "Braidwood Letters from the Front" by Roslyn Maddrell.
